Bucket List With A Twist

African Contemporary Art Week

Client brief

A Danish architectural society sought an educational journey through South Africa, designed to engage with the country's most respected and impactful architects. Their goal: to gain insight into the evolution of South Africa's built environment, from heritage landmarks to socially driven modern design.

What we delivered

heritage in the landscape

Begin the journey at !Khwa ttu San Heritage Centre and Nature Reserve in Yzerfontein. This award-winning cultural site blends ecological sensitivity with meaningful architectural storytelling, offering a powerful introduction to place, history, and design.

educational spaces reimagined

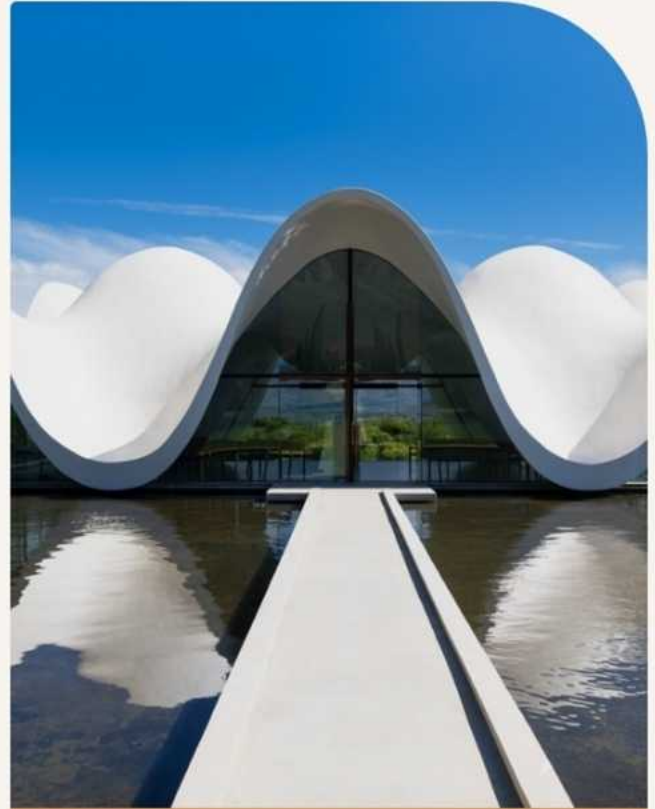

Meet Johann Slee at Kliphuis for a conversation around residential design. Continue to the Green School South Africa, where GASS Architecture's biophilic design principles shape learning environments.

What we delivered

civic spaces & icons

Tour the Old Granary, now the Desmond & Leah Tutu Legacy Centre, followed by the Zeitz MOCAA for a deep dive into repurposed industrial architecture. Visit the French School (a heritage campus) and the private residence of Gawie Fagan, guided by Peter Rich.

rural reverence & design

Travel to Bosjes Farm for lunch and a guided visit through its gardens and the iconic Bosjes Chapel, a celebrated architectural symbol of simplicity, symbolism, and landscape harmony.

Client brief

A family of four, parents and their 21-year-old twins, had just 24 hours in Cape Town following their dream safari in Botswana. They wanted to experience the Cape Peninsula in a way that was luxurious, immersive, and unforgettable, without wasting a moment.

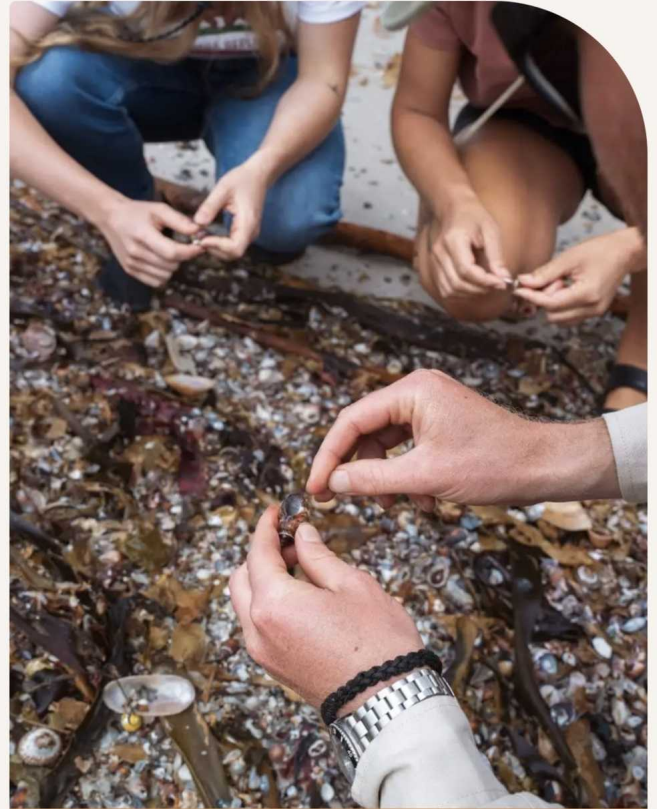

What we delivered

scenic flight over the peninsula

Begin the day in extraordinary style with a private helicopter journey along the Cape's dramatic coastline. Glide above Robben Island, Table Mountain, Hout Bay, and Chapman's Peak en route to a private landing at Miller's Point.

forage & feast at cape point

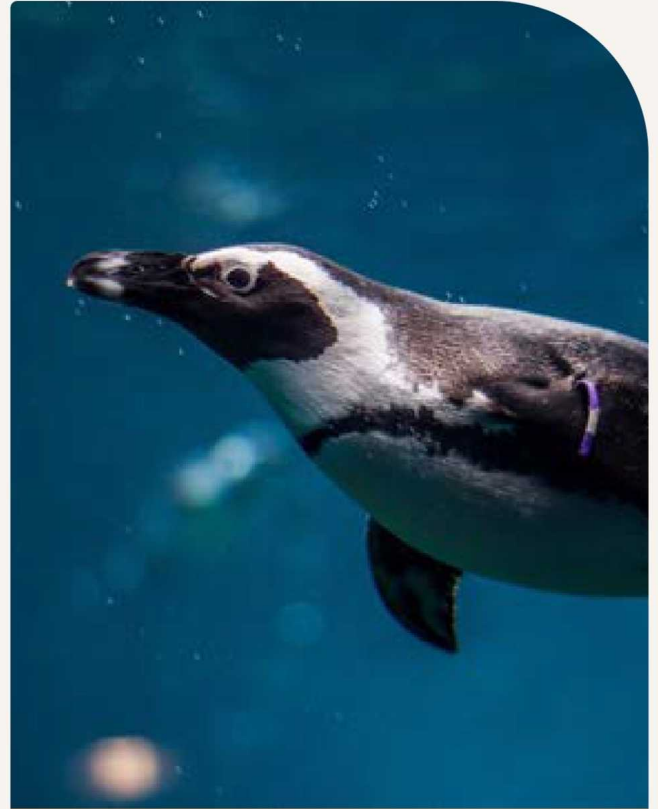

Touch down and join a local foraging guide for a seasonal food adventure through the wild coastal landscape. Gather ingredients guided by tide, time, and terrain, then cook and enjoy your creations in a breathtaking glasshouse setting with botanical pairings.

What we delivered

cape point exploration

After lunch, your guide will lead you through the iconic Cape Point Nature Reserve, a landscape of cliffs, shipwrecks, and rare fynbos, where ocean meets history in dramatic harmony.

kayak with african penguins

End the day on the water with a private kayak launch at Boulders Beach. Paddle alongside the coastline and come face-to-face with the famous African penguin colony, no crowds, no queues, just a peaceful encounter with nature's quirks.

Client brief

16 members from the world's largest leadership community of chief executives sought a 7-day curated art experience in Cape Town—immersing themselves in renowned galleries and connecting with South Africa's top contemporary artists through intimate studio visits, openings, and collector-led conversations.

What we delivered

vip welcome at 21 nettleton

Begin the journey with a private sunset cocktail reception hosted in collaboration with Zeitz MOCAA. Set in the exclusive 21 Nettleton residence, this evening offers breathtaking views and an intimate introduction to Cape Town's art community.
